

Did you know?

The term gladiolus is from the Latin word gladius, which means sword.

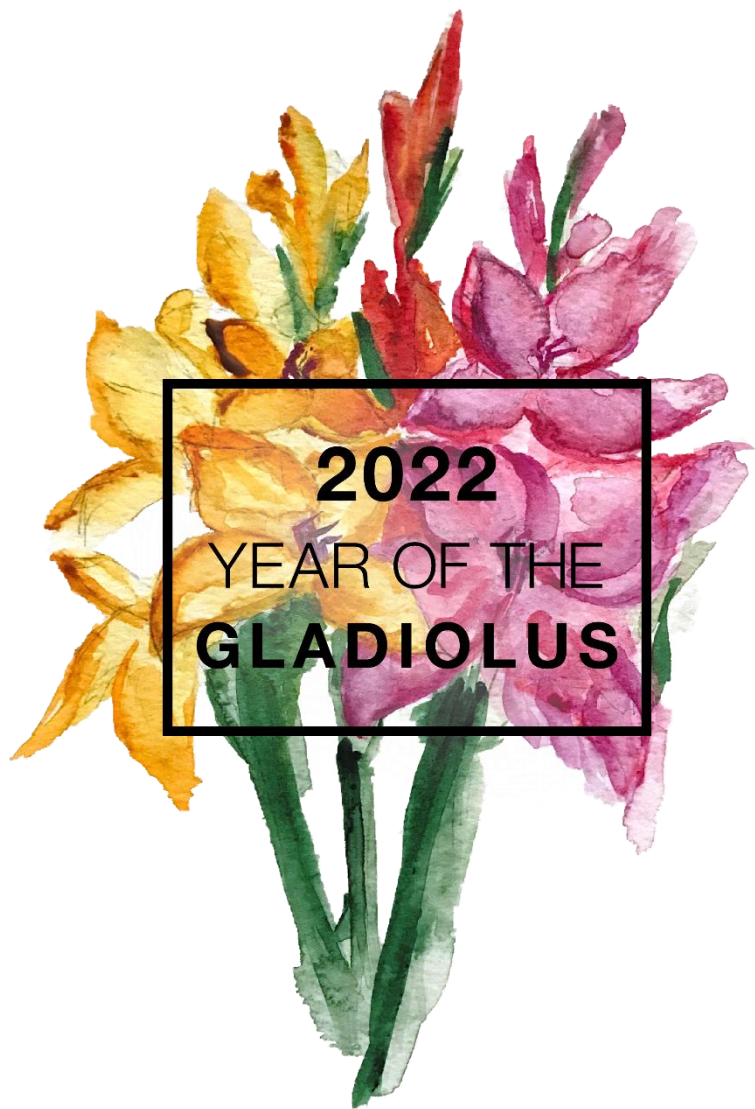

#yearofthegladiolus

Did you know?

Gladiolus
symbolize heroism, strength,
victory and pride.

2022
YEAR OF THE GLADIOLUS

#yearofthegladiolus

Did you know?

The original seven varieties existed naturally in South Africa.

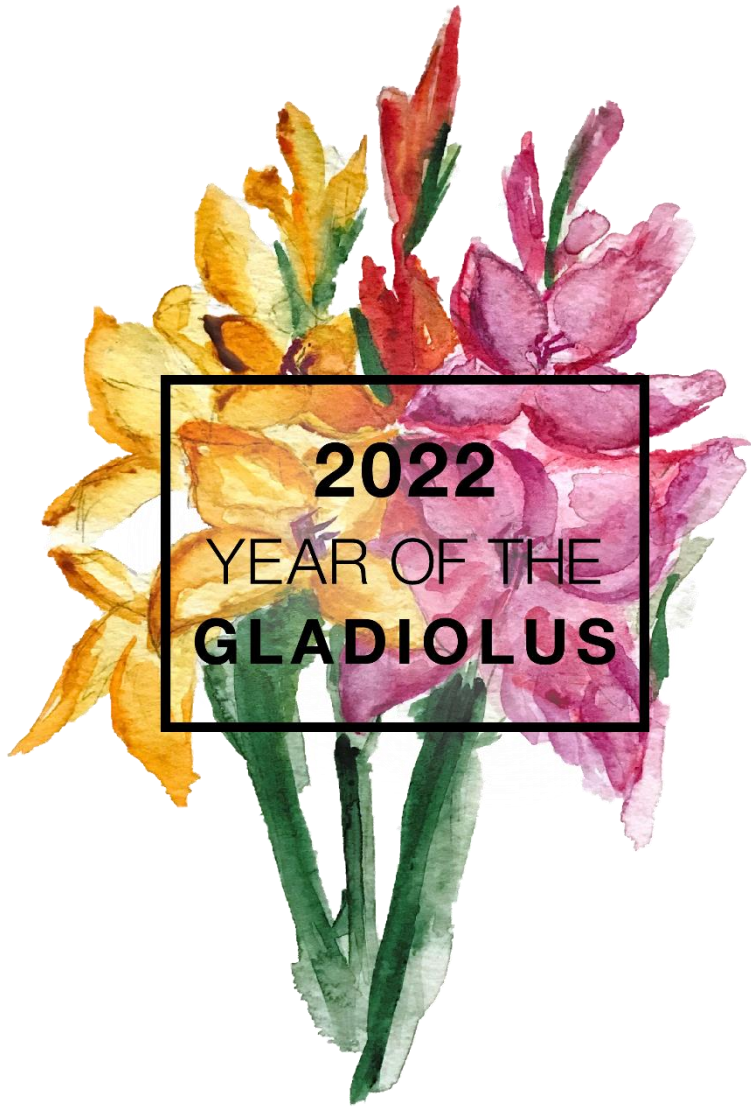

#yearofthegladiolus

Did you know?

The gladiolus “bulb” is actually not a bulb but a corm.

#yearofthegladiolus

Did you know?

Gladioli are available in many heights, sizes, types, colors and patterns of blooms.

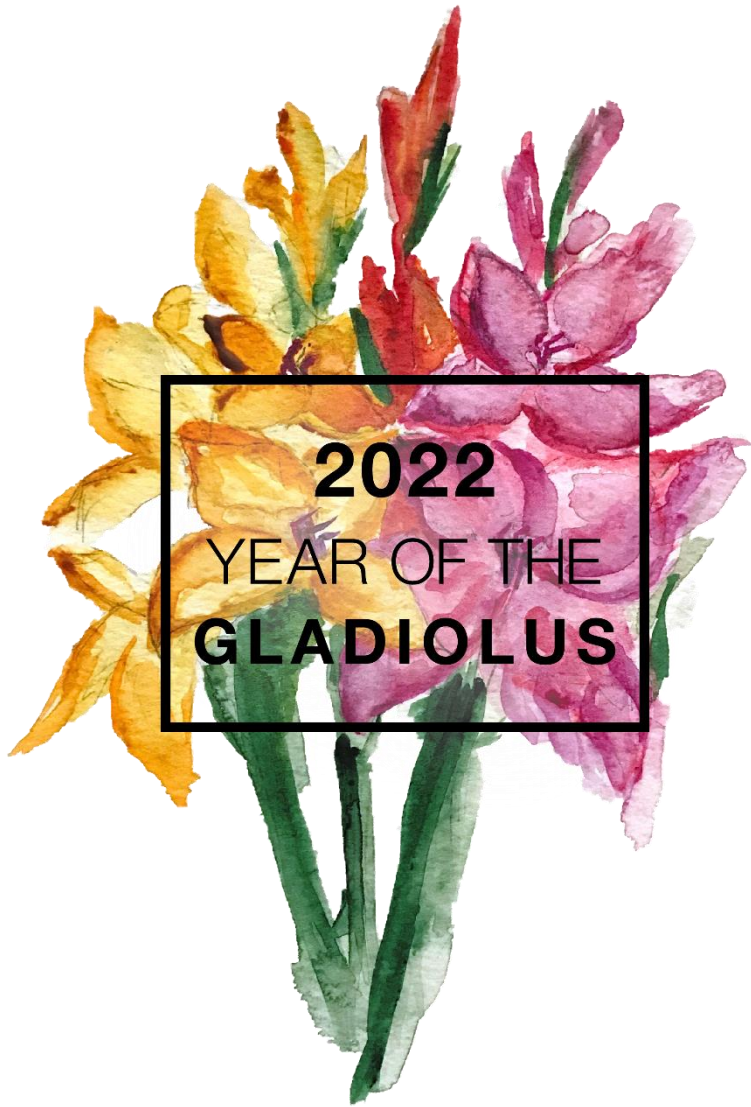

#yearofthegladiolus

Did you know?

Gladioli have numerous funnel-shaped flowers clustered on one side of the stem with 6 petal-like floral parts.

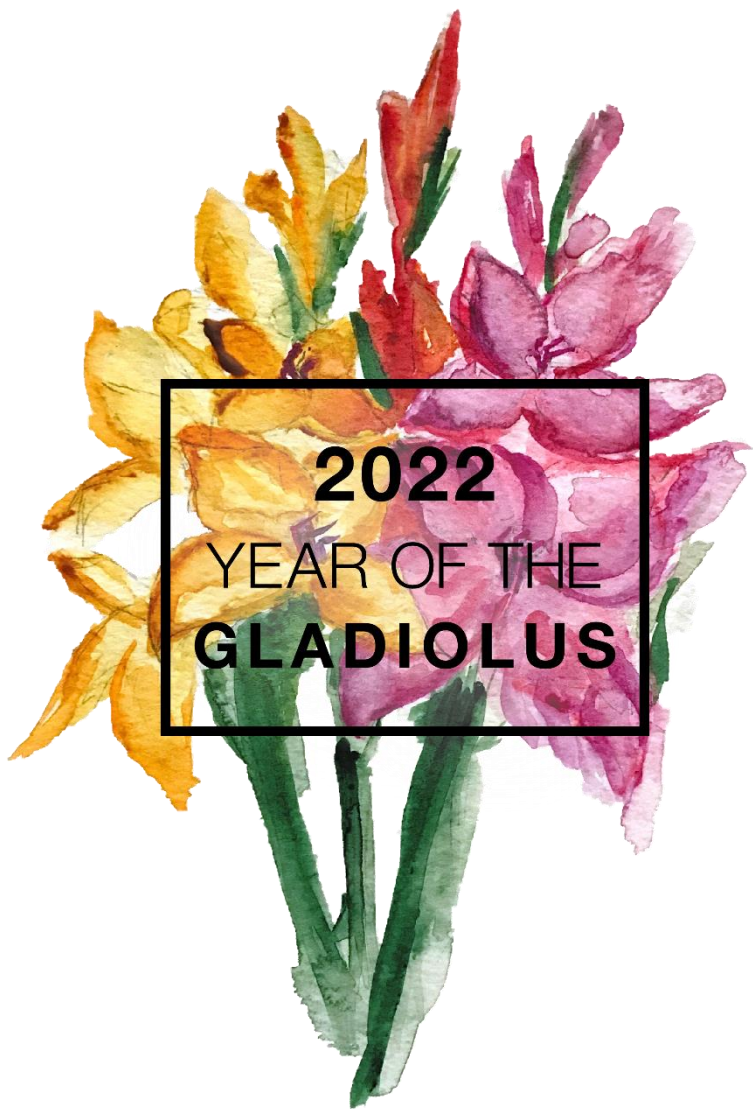

#yearofthegladiolus

Did you know?

Gladioli are part of the iris family and there are over 255 species of them.

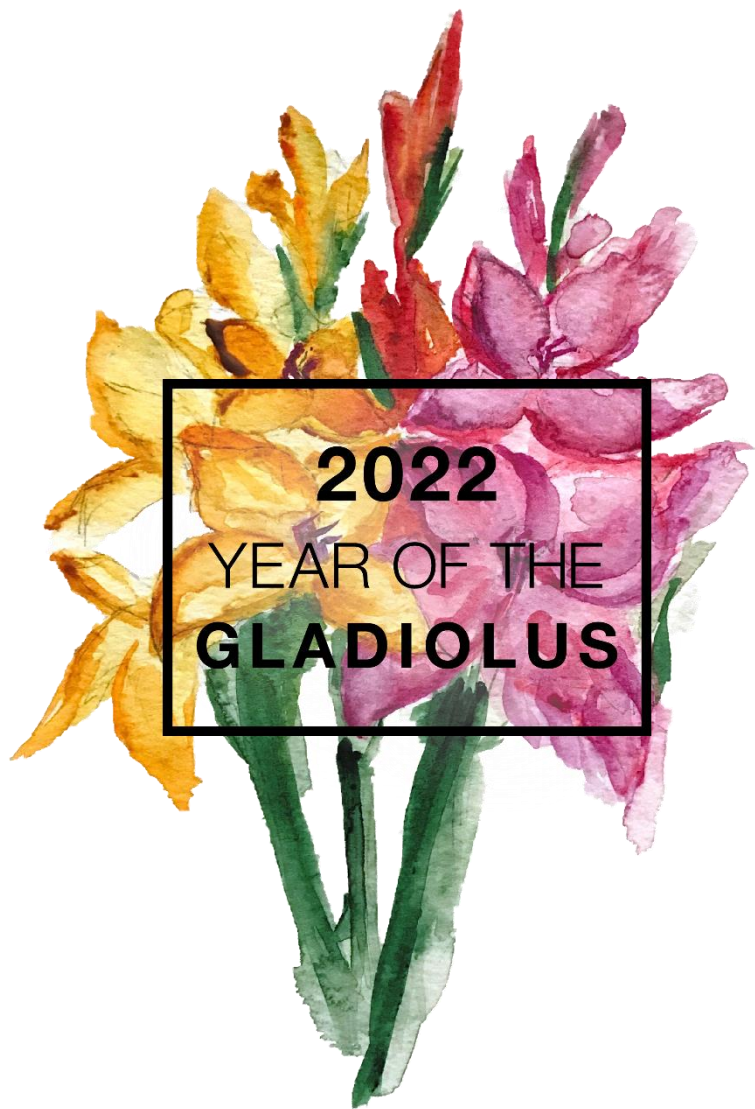

#yearofthegladiolus

Did you know?

Gladiolus can grow to 4' tall, making them great for cut flower arrangements.

2022
YEAR OF THE GLADIOLUS

#yearofthegladiolus

