

Did you know?

The rudbeckia is the official state flower of Maryland.

#yearoftherudbeckia

Did you know?

At the Preakness Stakes, a horseshoe arrangement of rudbeckia flowers are placed around the winning horse's neck.

#yearoftherudbeckia

Did you know?

Native rudbeckias are “pioneer plants” - one of the first plants to grow back after a fire.

#yearoftherudbeckia

Did you know?

Rudbeckias host the Silvery Checkerspot butterfly caterpillar.

#yearoftherudbeckia

Did you know?

As cut flowers,
rudbeckia can last
6-10 days.

2023
YEAR OF THE RUDBECKIA

#yearoftherudbeckia

NATIONAL GARDEN BUREAU

Did you know?

Rudbeckias can benefit from dividing every 3-4 years.

#yearoftherudbeckia

Did you know?

Leaving rudbeckia seed heads on to dry will attract birds. But, rudbeckias are deer-resistant!

#yearoftherudbeckia

Did you know?

Rudbeckias symbolize justice, resilience and encouragement.

#yearoftherudbeckia

